

TAASA (Ther-A-Art) Group of Southern Africa)

Mission statement:

The establishment and development of Art techniques Counselling as a field in South Africa

Membership:

Open

Advantages:

As a member you will receive:

- An online magazine with the latest developments in the field, article by and profiles of art techniques counsellors and Art therapists in America and other countries, articles on new books and profile of writers in America as well as the opportunity to publish work you've done as Art techniques Counsellor in South Africa and the other countries where we have students/counsellors, synopsis of your thesis, write articles for us and/or present case studies.
- The info on (and discount) to attend forums, guest lecturers, and exhibitions.
- Preference to present or exhibit at forums and exhibitions
- Info on latest research
- Info on organizations that employ Art techniques Counsellors

TAASA Registration Cost:

Members (no training, but interested in field) = R200 per year

Art techniques Counsellor students (students of the Art Healing Academy) = R300 per year

Art techniques Counsellors (completed '3rd year' (18 short courses) at the Art Healing Academy) = R350 per year

Professional Art techniques Counsellors (completed '4th year' (21 short courses) at the Art Healing Academy) = R400 per year

Bank Details:

Nedbank

Account name: AMO

Branch number: 158550

Account Number: 1080684182

You can also pay via PayPal

To Register:

Complete the following steps and more details will be passed on to you via our office:

- Complete the TAASA Membership registration Form.
- Ensure you pay the annual or monthly fee.
- Send the proof of payment to info@arthealingacademy.co.za